COMMENDADOR VECCHY BEY.

This distinguished Italian Commissioner has arrived back from a short excursion to the South, having visited the Italian colonies at Sauce Corto, Pigue, etc, on Mr Casey's magnificent Curumalan estate, and will in a few days proceed to Rosario, from thence to Santa Fé, Corrientes, Misiones and Posadas.

Sr. Vecchy Bey visits the River Plate entrusted by his Government to report on the country and its adaptibility to Italian emigration, being the first Commissioner of the kind ever named by the Italian Government. His mission seems to us one of the very highest importance to both countries, and the Italian Government conscious of its importance has selected this gentleman for his great experience in foreign countries and high testimonials. Sr. Vecchy was for 10 years Director General of the Agricultural Department in Egypt, and for his long and valued services received from the Khedive the title and distinction of Bey. Previous to his appointment in Egypt he served in our own colonies as member of the Agricultural and Horticultural Society India, at Mysore, and received as testimonial the gold medal of the Society. He has published some useful works, and has specially devoted his attention to the cultivation of sugar, indigo, tobacco, wheat, rice and silk worms etc. He brought with him from Italy high letters of introduction to President Roca, Dr. Paz, his own Minister, Baron Cova, and to the chief Italian merchants of the place, and being a man of great experience and profound observation, his reports to his Government on this country will command immense attention throughout all Italy, where, spite of the very large emigration of Italians, the country is as yet but most imperfectly known, and where, as we learn from the Commendador himself, there exists a surplus population of at least two millions for emigration to this country, when the means and the necessary facilities exist to convey such a number to the Plate.

Commendador Vecchy, although but recently arrived, has made good use of his time: he has just come from the South where he visited Curumalan and its colonies, and has already sent to the Minister of agriculture and Foreign Affairs in Rome, reports which will be published in the Italian papers. He says that he was greatly struck with the magnitude of the Curumalan estate having seen nothing to equal it in extent in Egypt or India. He spoke with his countrymen on the Sauce Corto, and gathered from them all that they were prosperous, contented and happy. The soil is so fertile that everything grows in the most abundant profusion, and the climate is so healthy that in 2 years they have not had a single death; there is neither Doctor nor apothecary in the colony. The crops look splendid, the colonists want for nothing, and this year they and the French colonists at Pigue have begun planting vines which promise the very best results. The scenery is so lovely, the climate so genial, and the soil so fertile that the colonists regard themselves again as in their beloved Italia, with every blessing and comfort around.

> Italia! Oh Italia! thou who hast
> The fatal gift of beauty.

The Italian colonization of the Sauce Corto is susceptible of the greatest expansion, owing to the success and prosperity of the first colonists, and every season thousands of acres of fresh land along its fertile banks will be ploughed up by the indomitable countrymen of Tasso and Torquato. The Commendador spoke with the colonists and went over their farms, studying at every step the various questions of agricultural economy that presented themselves to him as a new visitor in an intensely new country.

He was welcomed at the estancia by the hospitable majordomo, Mr. Brett, who offered him every attention and showed him over the place. The immense stables, 150 metres by 42, perfectly astonished him; here are 100 stables for fine sire horses, and immense lofts for forage, wool, corn, potatoes, &c.; a fine wind-mill pumps water into a large tank on the roof, and this water is distributed over the stables, &c., in 1½ inch pipes, and is always a safeguard against fire. There is another and smaller wind-mill at the estancia house which supplies the premises, gardens, &c. The Commendador went over the land and saw the stock, 60,000 mares! 120,000 sheep, and 25,000 mestizo cows. The bulls and the milch-cows particularly attracted his notice, as also the magnificent sire horses. So large is the establishment that he says the estancia premises present the appearance of a village, which possesses the great advantage of being so close to the railway. No one in Italy has ever heard of Curumalan, or its estancia, or colonies, and people in Rome will be astonished when they read the Commendador's report on this princely property. Most of the Italian colonists have come from the Banda Oriental, where they were not very successful, but now prosperity smiles on them. At the estancia he noticed that Mr. Brett had a fine breed of Berkshire pigs, and his large alfalfares, fields of potatoes, maize, &c., presented the most smiling aspect. There is also an admirable sheep-bath, or dip, for curing the sheep; in fact, the place is supplied with everything; nothing is wanting, and the richness of the black earth soil shows what crops may be grown, when colony after colony stretches up to the very foot of the mountains.

The Commendador informed us that he estimates the number of Italians in the Plate at 300,000, and that, when the country becomes better known in Italy, and good honest information given to the people of the true agricultural economy of the Plate, the present emigration figures will become tenfold. He says that in all Egypt there are only 16,000 Italians, and that in no other foreign country is there such a number of Italians as in the Plate.

We shall watch with very keen interest Mr Vecchi's foot-prints in the Plate. His mission is one of the most incalculable importance to both countries, which seems to be well understood by his own Government in selecting for the trust a man of such great experience and acknowledged abilities.

LONDON LETTER.

GOSSIP.

(From our own Correspondent.)

October 3rd.

The Hon. Sir Anthony Ashley-Cooper, Bart., seventh Earl of Shaftesbury, died at Folkestone, at 1 p.m., on Oct. 1st, in his 85th year. He was born on the 28th of April, 1801. The newspapers are filled with memoirs of Lord Shaftesbury, who, from the date of the Factory Acts to the recent discussions on the housing of the people, has passed a long life in untiring efforts to alleviate the condition of the poor, to set an example of a high moral and religious life to the rich, and to be benevolent and useful to all men. The Dean of Westminster has proposed that the late Earl should be interred in Westminster Abbey, but his wish was that he should be buried without ostentation in the family vault, in the parish of St. Giles, Dorsetshire. Lord Ashley, now Earl of Shaftesbury, will carry out the late Earl's wishes. On its way from Folkestone to Dorsetshire the body will rest in the Abbey of Westminster.

The Archbishop of Canterbury has sent to the Archdeacons of his diocese forms of prayer to be used in the churches on the eve of the coming elections. It would be out of place to print the prayers in this column, which, as a reflex of London life, is of the earth, earthy; but I may mention that we are asked to pray that "none be deceived through wilfulness and by vain words;" and for the interests of "Thy church" and "Thy true religion." This is a little hard on the Liberation Society; but, if anything, it confirms their object, as it shows the want of a free and universal religion above the limitation of sectarian views. When Mr. Foysey prays for us, we feel that the difference between a something and nothing at all is so slight we can all join. We kneel with the Archbishop of Canterbury and our minds, which should be pure and concentrated, become gritty with recent reminiscences of heckling Conservative and Whig candidates.

Cardinal Manning appears as a contributor to this month's North American Review. The subject his Eminence has selected is the crusade on behalf of under-aged girls, and, indeed, sexual morality in general, which is now quite the rage, even in these "English Homes," these dear "country houses," we were taught to look upon as the abodes of purity and refinement, and where, in some of the more sporting houses, as the World tells us, men and women, from morning to night, play baccarat or poker, and for stakes so high, that we must soon hear, in some cases, of title-deeds and mortgage-deeds being dragged out, and a resort being made to the benefit of Earl Cairns' Act.

The Bishop of London has improved the occasion supplied by the Pall-Mall Gazette, to remind the "Church and Stage Guild" that if the clerical world condescends to be so liberal as to patronise the stage, it must be understood that it is only the stage of the family editions of Shakespeare, and that what they will not permit, is the "ballet," even on week-days or on Ash-Wednesday. The Lord Chamberlain has just withdrawn the restrictions under which the London theatres have long continued with regard to stage performances on that day of religious commemoration. The great unpaid, of Middlesex, have, on the other hand, decided that if the Lord Chamberlain chooses to desecrate that day by permitting "leg-pieces" at the theatres, they, for their parts, will not permit comic songs to be sung at the Music Halls on Ash-Wedesday. We are a funny people; are we not?

A Minotaur has turned up at Birmingham, one Ovens, described newspaperly as "a man of independent means." He is committed for trial. He seems to have been a horrid character. There is another case to-day of a Scotch girl of 15, who was seduced by an Oxford solicitor. There are numbers of similar cases cropping up. It is all very moral and proper, but, upon my word, I don't quite see the end of it. I mistrust these little scamps of girls, who are hard up, and will do anything rather than work. The girl whom the man Ovens induced to accompany him from London to Birmingham, writes in one of her letters to her friends—"I am now Flossy. I have hardly anything to do. I am 'my lady.' I am to have a ring for my finger and a new seal-skin jacket."

I send separately an account of the success of the "tannergram," as sixpenny telegrams are called, and must finish, as this is an afternoon post day, and there really is nothing worth paying for an extra penny late postage.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent.)

September 28.

Now is the time for the "Turkish Compasionate Fund" to come to the front—if it exists. After the usual hurly-burly, it may be taken as an accomplished fact that the Bulgarians will remain united. That is the outcome of the meeting of the eagles at Kramsier; the emperors agree only not to devour each other. Turkey will be their Poland. The danger is, can the fire be checked from spreading? North and South Bulgaria mean Russia. Well for the latter's subtle advance into Europe, what compensation is Austria, the advanced guard of Germany, to receive? Bosnia and Herzegovinia will not suffice, as she owes these two new additions to her patchwork empire already. If she seizes Salonica, Italy and France must be counted with. Tripoli would hardly satisfy the Italians, nor would the Spaniards allow France to seize Morocco. England, of course, would "stand at ease" in Egypt; she would act on Macmahon's motto: "I am here, and will stop."

There is no reason why the treaty of Berlin should be more respected than that of Paris. In 1870 Russia seized the occasion to tear up its Black Sea clauses; she now concludes the moment to be opportune to make waste paper of that of Berlin, with the connivance of Austria and Germany. She is again in possession of the advantages of the San Stefano treaty, which cost England, in 1878, six millions sterling indirectly to revise, and to effect the division of Bulgaria as a buffer-state between Russia and Constantinople.

That state was an incomplete creation. It required a good stretch of imagination to believe that the Bulgarians would consent for any length of time to remain severed, the more so after their effective military and civil organization by Russia, who, before she quit Roumelia officially, remained not the less effectually behind. To arrest the disintegration of the European provinces of Turkey, would require the latter to be sustained by some firm and friendly hand—that which is not forthcoming. The Powers only differ as to what sauce the Sultan's provinces ought to be devoured with. In the East there is a tie stronger than blood or country, and that tie is religion. Now the Bulgarians and the Russians are one in religion.

At least the Bulgarians outwardly belong to the Greek Church, though they are accused of being veritable pagans. The clergy are somewhat on a par with their flocks, as they cannot read the Greek Service. However, there was a time in France when the clergy could not read their breviaries, and more, could not write their name. There are 27,000 gipsies in Bulgaria who are either Mahomedans, Christians or pagans. All idioms are spoken in the country, even excellent Spanish, by the descendants of those Jews expelled from Spain by Philip II. According to Rösler, the Bulgarians are of Finnish origin; were heard of first about 120 years B.C., and have been subjected to Slavonic influences since the ninth century.

The area of Bulgaria, North or East, is 33,000 square miles. Sofia is the capital, and as inland as Madrid. Widdin is the chief town on the Danube, and Varna on the Black Sea. Its population is 2½ millions, the moiety of the total of Bulgarians, though the latter include numerous dwellers beyond Mesopotamia. The country is naturally fertile, but wants to be opened up by roads. Wheat is largely produced, next Indian corn and barley; cattle, sheep and horses are plentiful, and the region is favourable to vineyards. Judging from the geological nature of the country, there can be no mines. Good timber exists towards the summits of the Balkans, and cultivated patches of land also. On the Bulgarian side of the Danube there are cliffs 100 to 300 feet high; these slope inland and upwards till they form a table land towards the Balkans. "Balkan" is the Turkish for mountain. They are the soil and climate which form the riches of Bulgaria.

The Bulgarians are not a handsome race; nor are they physically and morally degraded as some depict. They are oval faced, with a peculiar habit of contracting their eyes; they are very industrious; as frugal as the French, and as saving as John Chinaman. They make capital navvies. In family life the cooperative principle exists. Sons will work on the home farm—for the peasants are yeomen and proprietors, and when enough money has been saved, a new take will be purchased and a son installed thereon.

Sofia, the capital, is included in the trunk railway line to connect with Belgrade, Constantinople and Salonica. In 1841, when Blanqui visited the city it was built of wood, and was as filthy as it was pestiferous. It is now rapidly becoming a western, a modern city. The palace of Prince Henry of Battenberg, the ruler, and brother-in-law of the Princess Beatrice, cost 3 millions francs. The National library is open all the year round, and in the evening is lit with gas; the Museum is becoming filled with curios; it has the famous "wooden" cannon that figures in all insurrections. The sidepaths of the streets are paved with old Turkish tomb-stones, on which are elegant Aarabesque inscriptions. In Paris old grave stones are made new, and contrived a double age, a triple debt to pay.

Prince Henry, the reigning sovereign, is very popular. Though of German origin, he was brought up in the German army, and was the favorite nephew of the late Czar's wife. Naturally, he has Russified more than ever Bulgarian manners and institutions. The separated Cherub has now joined its companion, thanks to a most able plan by Dr. Stransky who has studied well the tactics of Cavour and Bismarck. He acted while the Sultan was chloroformed by the passive operators at Skiernievice and Kremsier, and while he fiddled with Sir H. D. Wolff. Everything in Bulgaria is modelled after the Russian pattern; such as the uniform of the army; the officers and Ministers are Russian; military instruction is given in the Russian language, so that a stranger at a review either at Sophia or Philipopoli might conclude he was on the esplanade of Kiev or Moscow, and were the Sultan to assist at a review in Roumelia, he would have to hear the word of command given in the language of the conquerors of Shipka. Then a good fraction of the youth has made the campaign with Gourko and Skobeloff; and many of them are graduates of the Robert College at Constantinople, an institution founded by an American, and well organized for imparting a higher class education to Bulgarian youth.

With military have come social Russian manners. The officers are addicted to champagne drinking and gambling. But in domestic life, tea and the "Samovar" reign. Women commence to take part in society; they are no longer haremized; thus liberty and civilization follow in the train of the tea pot. The Bulgarian militia drill every Sunday; with Roumelia the united race army could amount to 300,000 men. Even Cabinet Ministers can be seen as simple privates in the ranks, receiving instruction from a corporal. In 1870 I saw in Paris the ex-Minister of Public Instruction, M. Duray, drilling as a private soldier; he even acted as sentry outside the office, where he was once chief. Obligatory and free instruction exists in Bulgaria, but Russia will not long put up with this dangerous weapon pointed to her huge system of organised hypocrises and veneering of civilization. Already she is jealous of the American Methodist school at Sofia and that of the French Catholics.

EUROPE AND THE SULTAN.

There have been changes in the Sultan's Cabinet, and these changes are understood to signify that the Sultan is disposed to take active measures for the assertion of his authority in Eastern Roumelia. Should he do so, no one will be able to say that he acted in haste, or, if we may judge by the telegrams of all the correspondents, without countenance from the Great Powers. It would seem, indeed, that the risk of taking action has been pointed out to him—the risk, namely, of bringing Russia into the field. But from all sides we hear that the Great Powers without exception deplore what has happened, condemn Prince Alexander for the part he has played in it, and acknowledge the right of the Porte to follow its own counsels in the matter. More particularly we hear to-day that "the Austrian, French, and German Governments have already informed the Ottoman Ambassadors that they highly disapprove of the action of Prince Alexander and recognize the right of Turkey to take measures for the preservation of the Berlin Treaty." It is further reported that our Government has made proposals to Italy and the other Powers with a view to united action for the restoration of the status quo ante: a report the authenticity of which is favoured by a statement made by M. de Freycinet in Cabinet Council yesterday. There is another reason for thinking that the Porte may possibly put its troops in motion. Prince Alexander begins to show signs of uneasiness. He is in a hurry to obtain from the Porte or from the Powers formal sanction for the union of Eastern Roumelia with Bulgaria, because he finds that the Mussulman population in the first-named province are forming armed bands; and therefore he will not be able to postpone for more than two days an order for the disarmament of the Mussulmans in Roumelia. This is the first time we have heard of the arming of the Mussulmans; and we are inclined to think that if we hear of it now, and supposing that the Prince really has sent such a message to the Powers, it is either because his Highness thinks it necessary to "bluff," or to force the game by an exasperating measure of disarmament. In the one case the Sultan might be expected to take heart a little; in the other he might possibly feel bound not to leave his Mussulman subjects to be murdered and maltreated by the Prince's Bulgarians. Possibly, we say; by no means probably. The Sultan may receive assurances three times a day that he is at liberty to take measures to re-establish his right to the Balkan line of frontier, and no doubt will he do so; but the measures he will choose will not be military measures. He knows too well that they would instantly bring upon him a war from which, whatever the outcome. Turkey would not profit: it would only end in so much more impoverishment, so much more slaughter for his people. It has long been an understood thing that in European Turkey the Sultan must not be allowed either to suppress a revolt or even to gain a battle. He was permitted to fight the Servians so long as the Servians—or rather the Russian volunteers engaged in Servia—could hold their ground against him. But no sooner did he defeat his rebellious feudatory, together with the Russians who were aiding him, than a voice from the north ordered him to desist, under pain of reprisals which in due time were enforced. The Sultan can now no more make war upon the Roumelians than nine year ago he was suffered to war upon the Servians—except, indeed, as already said, for so long a time as he was unable to fight with success. There is but one safe course before him. He must be content to appeal to the Powers who signed the Berlin Treaty, and submit to them the question whether his rights under that treaty are to be forfeited because the Panslavist societies have got up a successful rising in a province already self-governing and in which any pretence of "Mussulman oppression" is simply ridiculous. This is all that the Sultan can do; and if the Great European Powers are anxious to reduce the risks of bloodshed, and prevent further trouble, they will take up the business of conferring upon the whole question at the earliest possible moment. But something else they should do, if they really wish for peace. They should agree at once to impose quietude upon the little States which are threatening to extend the area of disturbance. Movements here and movements there are being prepared by the Governments of these States: those Governments should be peremptorily informed that they are not to move.

LATEST FROM BRAZIL.

A local exposition will be opened at Sabara, Minas Geraes, on the 25th inst.

The result of the recent provincial elections in Sao Paulo does not seem to be as favorable to the conservatives as was expected.

The new slaughter-house at Campinas, Sao Paulo, was formally inaugurated on the 18th inst. Let us hope that its career will be a cleaner one than that of the imperial capital.

On 2nd December next the new light on the Santa Maria fort, Bahia harbor, will be inaugurated. Position: 13° o' 26" S. Lat; Long 38 o 32' West of Greenwich. The light is green seaward and red towards the harbor; visible five miles.

A telegram to the Jornal do Commercio, dated the 15th, says that the provincial chamber of Rio Grande do Sul should have commenced its session on that date, but that the president of the province and the conservative deputies had not appeared.

The city of Rio Claro has received the motor for running the electric light machinery which was ordered from the United States some time ago. It is expected that electric lighting will be inaugurated there some time during the present month.

On the 12th inst. some 22 slaves, belonging to Fernando Monteiro Silva, presented themselves to the police authorities of Taubaté, Sao Paulo, complaining of cruel treatment and asking for protection. The slaves were locked up and an investigation was ordered.

A telegram from Coritiba, Paraná, dated the 18th, announces the organization of an immigration society there under the auspices of the president of the province, Dr. Taunay, who has long been interested in the subject and served as vice-president of the central society of this city. The directory is composed of three Brazilians, three Portuguese and three Germans, one French, one Pole, one Englishman and an Italian.

A sensible colonization project has recently been made public by a German planter of S. Joao da Boa-Vista, province of Sao Paulo, named Nicolau Redher, who proposes to divide his plantation into lots of 10 alqueires (about 50 acres) which, with a good house, two cows and two horses, he proposes to sell for $1,300, the colonist to pay for the same with a half of his crop each year. He intends to put up a sugar mill near the centre of the state, and the colonists will be required to grow sugar cane for it. The colonists will be Germans.

The city of Pará seems to have been some what unfortunate in its department of public works. According to the Diario do Gram-Pará of the 3rd inst., the Nazareth church cost $400,000 and was under construction 33 years, and is one of the ugliest buildings in the city; the Paz theatre cost $1,000,000 and is a mass of technical defects; the provincial palace cost $800,000 and is better built than the others; and the city quays have already cost over $2,000,000 without being of the slightest advantage to the port. As to the custom house—our colleague can not do the subject justice! He will try it some other day!

The September income of the Ypanema iron foundry amounted to $4,130 644.

The public gas illumination of Bahia last month cost total of 15,260$600.

Advices received here on the 19th announce the capture of the bookkeeper of the Bragança, Pará, railway accused of forgery to the extent of some $8,000. He was arrested at Manáos.

In S. Lourenço, a suburb of the capital of Rio de Janeiro, the hedges are so luxuriant that passengers in the tramcars run the risk of losing an eye, or, worse still, receiving a disfiguring scar upon the cheek of beauty.

A Minas Geraes paper mentions the killing of a clown by a performing elephant at a circus and adds that during the confusion a fair trapezist fled with her lover. This says, the paper, has occurred twice to the circus company. But which? Killing a clown, or stealing a performer?

A cabmen's strike occurred in Sao Paulo on the 16th because of a police order which forbade their standing near the railway station. The passengers by the Rio train in the evening, who missed the tram car, had to get into town on foot, much to their inconvenience. The Diario Mercantil says that the police were wholly at fault in the matter.

The town of Taubaté, Sao Paulo, has for some time been the scene of a great demonstration of spiritualism. Communications from all the great personages who have ever lived, have been announced, and many have gone quite crazy through the unnatural excitement created. The author of all this, a Dr. Antonio Ramos Nogueira, has finally been compelled to leave the place.

The Imprensa, of Tieté, Sao Paulo, says that the blossoms in the coffee orchards of that municipality were most abundant during the last days of September and the early part of the current month. The planters all unite in saying that they never saw so profuse a blossoming. Some planters estimate the next crop for that municipality at over 3,000,000 kilogrammes, as against 450,000 kilogrammes for the crop now marketing.

The Diario, of Campinas, Sao Paulo, is informed that the inhabitants Mococa are in extreme terror because of the threats of a neighboring planter, Joao Baptista de Lima, who threatens to visit them with his capangas. The whole country for leagues about is terrorized by this man. He is the same one who so brutally whipped a lot of colonists a short time since. A Belgian machinist recently went to his plantation to seek employment, and for some inexplicable reason was whipped and nearly killed by Lima's capangas. Protection has been asked from the provincial government by the people of Mococa, but thus far without response.

The Diario de Noticias of Bahia of the 15th inst. announces an 'aviso' from the treasury to the effect that on and after the 17th the new additional 5 o/o tax will be collected on all general imposts, except those on exports. The notice seems to have been a very short one.

A telegram of the 22nd from Sao Paulo announces the assassination at Mococa of Joao Baptista de Lima and his mistress by an Indian whom Lima had caused to be whipped the evening before. Lima is the planter who has recently won notoriety for whipping colonists on his plantation, and whose good character has since been vouched for by all the local authorities.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Aconcagua from Liverpool entered Montevideo yesterday, and we expect her mails up this morning. The La Plata is expected hourly, having left Rio on Monday.

Several parties called on us yesterday about the Gallegos gold discoveries. The subject seems to attract much notice, and some enterprising fellow-countrymen think of making a start. The difficulty is to get to Gallegos. We recommend the steamer from Montevideo, calling at Punta Arenas, but the hardships to be experienced down there are so great that we think we should prefer lino growing in Santa Fe.

The Lord Mayor's Committee to expropriate the Chacabuco and Las Piedras houses for the Boulevard, report that all the owners save one offer to give the Municipality the land free for the street, and therefore undergo no expropriation. It seems that the vote in Congress on Tuesday was about the money for street pavement and not the Boulevard.

Mr Cobo's funeral yesterday was very largely attended. Deceased, although one of the richest men in town, for 20 years led an estanciero's life.

Mr. Ebbeke sells to-day some good Havannah cigars and select German and French books; we advise those who want to secure bargains to attend the sale.

To-day Congress breaks up, and our friends from the Interior return to their distant homes. We wish them a pleasant trip, and only regret they did not cut the budget down to 25 millions.

Mr. Duncan has enlarged his well known premises in Calle Piedad, called "The Oxford," and we advise all our friends from the camp fo give him a call.

On Sunday the Kermesse in Colon comes to an end, and we believe with a result truly gratifying to the efforts of the distinguished ladies who were the organizers and promoters of the fete. To-night there will be another concert of tastefully selected pieces by well-known composers, and on Sunday the whole affair comes to a finish with the sale at 12, mid-day, of the kiosks and steeple-chases, by Auctioneer Bullrich, and the lottery for the grand Sevres vase, presented by the French Government, at 10 p.m.

The Boulevard scheme seems at last brought to a standstill, and unless the Lord Mayor can find some private company able and willing to advance the funds to pay for the expropriation of the first block, we much fear the scheme must stand over until the country returns to specie payments. Buenos Aires, however, is such an extraordinary place, that perhaps when least we expect it, the Lord Mayor may push it through and between night and morning the roof may be taken off the policia, and 500 Italians, pick-axe in hand, tumble the walls of the rears of the houses in the route. The business in the hands of a well-managed company would, no doubt, pay splendidly, but the owners of the properties should be those most interested in carrying it out, and here we may note that so much uncertainty exists, tenants may not be willing to continue in the premises they at present occupy, and hence the property owners may suffer a very serious loss, as all the shops and stores in the expropriation route will soon be vacated. General Mansilla's speech in Congress opposing the credit was very severe, he said that the present Municipal board is no board at all, and that in reality no Municipal council exists; his speech carried the house with him and the proposed credit was rejected; but this credit has nothing to do with the Boulevard. In the opinion of most people the Boulevard is only a question of time, and sooner or later will be carried out.

In a late number of Truth we see that the Hairby family estate, a magnificent property in Lincolnshire has been sold for the small sum of £17,000 to Mr. Newman of Bedford. Chevalier Hairby tells us that the estate, which was in the possession of the family for over a century, is worth five times the amount for which it has been sold. This shows that the value of property is falling rapidly in England.

The rains in the South have been simply tremendous. All the estancias near Bahia Blanca are drenched. The camps needed the rain, and now they have had enough for all the summer.

The Conference began in Constantinople on Tuesday, and so did the fighting in the Servian frontier. The Bulgarians seem to have thrashed the Servians. The warlike spirit in Bulgaria must be very high when half the girls in it have offered to form corps of Amazons, and are only waiting a word from Prince Alexander Butterpudding to vault on horseback and take the field. The most serious item in the cablegrams published yesterday (Barring the steady refusal of Mr Justice Lopes to hear the Archbishop of Canterbury as a witness in the case of our confrere Stead) was that Austria has secretly ordered the railway companies to have 2,000 waggons ready for the conveyance of troops. Now that the fighting has begun, it will be hard to stop it.

H.M.S. Stork has arrived at the Mount. We salute her captain and officers.

There was a decided improvement in the weather yesterday, from the pleasant-and-cool point of view. It rained in the camp during the night, and the coolness caused thereby arrived in town at daylight and made life quite enjoyable after the "calor barbaro" of Tuesday.

The Buenos Aires Senate has voted the Bill to give the members of the Convention that has been reforming the Constitution for the last three years, 2,000 Nats. a piece when they have finished their work. They will soon hurry it along now. Every time they fail to attend at a sitting, 200 Nats. will be deducted from the 2000. Few of them will miss a day.

There were a lot of people at Palermo on Tuesday to see Bargossi run. His performances are really wonderful. Mrs B. is a charming Parisian lady. Her husband taught her to run, which she does almost as well as himself, and with the grace of a fawn. A sporting character on the ground offered to back a horse against Bargossi for 20 times round the Hippodrome; but the runner refused the contest unless the distance was increased to 60 rounds—21 kilometres!

The exchange man at 132 San Martin was relieved of 5000 Nats in gold, notes and jewels the other night by some enterprising thieves. Exchange men make such a lot of money that they can well afford to be robbed occasionally.

Thirty of the unwashed were arrested and fined ou Tuesday for bathing in the river between the moles. If they do it again, they will be put 'entre rejas.' The pleasure of a bath is quite spoiled, and it does the health no good if immediately followed by a sharp fine.

"Denouncing" properties as "fiscal," or raising other claims to them, seems to be a favourite amusement just now. The very latest "denuncia" is a tremendous one, embracing all the land from the Ledesma quinta to the Boca, in which locality it has caused quite an epileptic feeling. Between Boulevard expropriations, new streets, 'denuncias,' claims on the title, etc, he's a wise man who knows his own 'fath—beg pardon, we mean his own 'finca.'

Talking of the Boulevard! The proprietors of the manzanas between Chacabuco, Piedras, Victoria and Rivadavia have offered to give ground free for the new Avenida. The rub is the money. The National Bank won't give his Lordship a red cent., and our esteemed colleague La Pampa gives it a vigorous pat on the back for refusing.

A lot of marriages will certainly come out of the French Kermesse in the Colon Theatre. One elegant young swain has bought a dozen bouquets from the same fair lady every night since the Fair opened.

Some of the papers complain that the Plaza Once apothecaries go about attending people in their houses and prescribing just the same as the most eminent M. D. And why not? If a man gets an attack of gout, and prefers an apothecary to a doctor, that's his affair, although the apothecary may kill him.

Appalling news from Paris. Crinoline is coming into fashion again. To balance this intelligence, it is also announced that the long-discarded yet most elegant linen cuffs and collars for ladies are again to be the rage.

Our valuable colleague El Arte contains an interesting biography of Commander Cæsar Rossi, the great actor now at the Politeama. Amongst other incidents of his career is the fact that he had the courage to get married, with only 70 cents in his pocket. He is now well off, and one of his sons is a distinguished lawyer in Turin.

The potatoe crop in the Santa Fé colonies is so enormous this year that the esculent is selling at ten cents per arrobe. As a rule, River Plate potatoes are like River Plate paving-stones—most monstrously bad; but they are improving a little.

We're awfully sorry to hear that our German cousins are taking to drink at a terrific rate. Here's what an exchange has to say about them:—"From a report made to the British Government by the Consul General at Frankfort, it appears that all over Germany the consumption of ardent spirits is rapidly increasing, especially among the working classes. In Prussia, for instance, between 1869 and 1880 the number of public houses increased at the rate of 38 per cent, while the population only increased at the rate of 13 per cent. The consumption of spirits rose from 8.6 litres per head between 1870 and 1874 to 9.2 litres per head in 1875-81."

The Hungarian duke who is in 'quod' in the Cabildo, was within an ace of marrying one of our Porteño belles a few months ago. Some family will surely get 'stuck' with some of those dukes, Counts, or Barons some fine day, if not very cautious. The duke in question happens to be a genuine one, but gone completely to the dogs. A nice, handsome, rich, young duchess might be his salvation; but we would hardly recommend any average girl to secure the strawberry-leaves at such a risk.

The Republica had a stiff but true article about gold yesterday.

The suicide of Mrs Hausmann is another shocking domestic tragedy. The unfortunate lady shot herself through the head, while her husband, son and mother were absent from the house. The unfortunate lady left two letters that are supposed to explain the cause of the dread act. She was only 24 years of age and very beautiful.

Mr Howard Grubb, of Dublin, has just received a contract from the Admiralty to erect what will be the largest telescope in the world, a 28-inch diameter refractor for the Royal Observatory at Greenwich. This great work of science will shortly be commenced at Mr Grubb's works at Rathmines, Dublin.

The following news from Glasgow may interest many of our readers:—

"There was launched yesterday from the building yard of Messrs John Fullerton & Co., Merksworth, a beautifully-modelled steel screw steamer of about 200 tons, which has been built much in excess of Lloyd's 100 A1 class. This steamer has been built to the order of Messrs Lees, Anderson & Co., engineers, Clyde Street, Glasgow through Mr. J. B. Cameron, consulting engineer, 160 Hope Street, Glasgow, and is intended to ply on the River Plate. She is entirely built of steel, has teak decks aud fittings, also steam windlass by Messrs Thomas Reid & Sons, Paisley. On the dog-shores being cut away by Miss Martin, Pollokshields, the steamer was gracefully named the "Quebracho" by Miss Helen P. Webster, Glasgow. After the launch the company adjourned to Merksworth House, where success to the Quebracho and owners was proposed and duly pledged. She will leave for Glasgow early next week, where the engines will be put on board by Messrs Lees, Anderson & Co., Clyde Street Engine Works.

The next mail will probably bring the news that the United States Senate has given General Osborn permission to accept the grand, carved shield presented to him by the Argentine Government for his good offices in connection with the Boundary Treaty with Chile.

Will nobody, or can nobody in office, from the Lord Mayor to the parish beadle, stop the beating of carpets on the roofs? It's an awful nuisance. The beaters always select the edge of the roof, so that the dust may smother the passers by. Torquato Alvear is a magnificent Lord Mayor, but Buenos Aires is the worst managed city under the sun. The Caliph of Bagdad would apply the bastinado for dozens of things which Caliph Alvear lets pass as a matter of course.

Important Notice.
I hereby advise the public that I have established a Gymnasium Institute at Calle Florida 406, where I also apply the MASSAGE SYSTEM as studied and practiced at Dr. KELLGREN'S well known institute in London.
This system has given the most surprising results in curing chest and lung complaints, and all maladies caused by the kidneys and joints, and in any way connected with the nervous system. Thus the celebrated SYSTEM of MASSAGE is recommended as a certain cure for rheumatism, asthma, undeveloped muscles, paralysis, disorders in the digestion and in the circulation of the blood, etc., etc.
I have also a special class for the development of the body and muscles.
The following is the time-table I have arranged for the application of the Massage System:
For Gentlemen 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.
For Ladies 12½ to 2 p.m.
Consultation hours—11.30 a.m. to 12.30.
Patients can also make arrangements for the application of the Massage System at their own residences.

Dysentery, Cholera Fever, Ague Coughs, Colds, &c.
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne
(Ex Army Medical Staff)
IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's—See Times, July 12th 1864.
The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than
Dr J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.
This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates health action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensive.
CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.
CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests too often fatal diseases Diphtheria Fever, Croup, Ague.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout Cancer Toothache, Meningites, &c.
From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemist, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan-5th 1880. To J. T. Davernport, Esq., 22, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury London—"Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congralulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, DR COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain, His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists."
Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all classes."
CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J. Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.

ON CHANGE.

November 4th, 1885

Gold	49.50 o/o prem.
Cedulas E	82
Cedulas F	80½
Cedulas G	85½
Nat. Bank Shares	140

The main feature in the gold market this morning was the sharp decline in the difference payable on operations from cash to the 30th. The result of this change is a stiffer demand, and a rise in rates, for the end of the month, whilst prices for cash remain stationary.

The speculation, otherwise, continues the same, but there is much dullness in affairs. Although the present level of the premium looks very steady, prospects are very uncertain and a fresh rise may put the market on a firm basis over 50 o/o. There are no weak symptoms in the speculation.

Well-informed operators state that the London bankers will advance several hundred thousand pounds to the Government, in anticipation of the final negotiation of the loan. The influx of this gold may influence the speculation for next month, but the effect on operations for the 30th inst. is problematical, unless the gold arrives this month, which is not probable. Both bulls and bears must stand on their own legs up to the 30th at least, and it is this conviction that strengthens the premium and leads all to suppose that the bears have over-speculated and will be caught in this month as effectually as at the last settlement, in spite of the bearish prospects of December.

Many appear to cherish the hope that definite advices of the loan negotiation will be received in this market towards the middle of the month. This, however, cannot be, since the official documents, conferring full powers on Minister Garcia, will only arrive in London about the 20th, and it is only reasonable to suppose that nothing important can be done till at least a week afterwards. Whatever news may be expected, it will certainly not come before the last days of the month or the beginning of December, and if the bears build their hopes on the moral effect of this news on this month's speculation, they run the risk of running into another corner and paying through the nose to pass their operations to December.

Talking of loan negotiations, it may interest this market to know that the Government of New South Wales is going through the same "via crucis" of syndicates, opposition, and loan difficulties, as the Argentine Executive. The Economist of the 3rd ult. has the following pertinent remarks on the doubtful prospects of this loan:—"The loan for £5,500,000 which the Government of New South Wales intended to bring out in July last, but which was deferred, partly owing to the opposition of the syndicate that had taken an active share in the floating of a previous issue, is now offered for subscription. So far as the condition of the money market is concerned, the new issue will be made under more favourable circumstances than that which was so successfully placed twelve months ago. Then there was no great excess of money, and the Bank rate was on the eve of being raised to 3 o/o, whereas, now there is extreme ease, and a great superabundance of money. Outside conditions, therefore, are all in favour of the present loan, and it will be interesting to note whether it commands so great a success as that of last year, which was subscribed for 2½ times over, and realised an average price of £93 13s 6d. Should it fail to do so, there will be no difficulty in discerning the reason. Within twelve months the Government of New South Wales will have borrowed here no less than £11,000,000, thus increasing the amount of its debt by about 50 o/o, and it may be doubted whether even so vigorous and progressive a colony is wise in so rapidly augmenting its liabilities." At leisure we shall reproduce some remarks showing the effect of low prices of wool in the Australasian colonies. Present prices, it is said, do not pay the producer in the distant sheep-farms in Australia.

The restriction of discounts by the Provincial bank appears to be no fiction, and all are beginning to notice the scarcity of Provincial notes. It may be that the notes of the bank remain in the province, but to judge by the monthly balance-sheet the circulation of Provincial notes shows no great shrinkage. The rumours of the Bank withdrawing its emission and lapsing into the condition of a private bank are simply preposterous, but these reports are current in some quarters and we give them for what they are worth; there is no denying the fact that the circulation of provincial notes, in this market at least, has declined considerably. This has no doubt been caused by the withdrawal of the old paper currency in the Province.

The exchange market experienced a sudden whirl to-day and the rate on London jumped to 47¾d. Large operations were passed at 47½ to 47¾d. The cause of the rise is no doubt the speculative difference payable on 'Change. The money market continues in an easy condition for paper and tight for gold. Gold discounts are quite nominal.

Over one hundred thousand dollars gold changed hands for cash; the market opened at 49½, fell to 48, rose to 50, and closed weak at the latter rate. One hundred thousand dollars were sold for to-morrow, Saturday and 14th at 48½ to 50. Operations for the end of the month embraced $10,000$; rates opened at 46½, rose to 48 and closed at 47½. Over one hundred thousand were sold for December at 44 to 45½. About 650,000$ were sold this morning.

Two hundred Shares of the National Bank were sold for the end of the month at 139 and 140. Certificates are completely out of the market. It is a most remarkable fact that the forced currency bill has failed to put any life into the share speculation, in spite of the clause that grants the distribution of full dividends to the shareholders.

Cedulas are duller than ever, but prices are firm. Twenty thousand E were sold cash at 82. Twelve thousand F changed hands at 80½. Operations in G amounted to 25,000 for cash at 85½ and 85¾. It is strange how the investing public stick to paper stocks through thick and thin, in spite of the depreciation of the currency and of the rise in gold. They held on too long and now they prefer remaining with the stock and run the chance of a favorable reaction in the country to selling at so a serious loss.

Letters from Chupat call the attention of the National Government to the necessity of improving the condition of the port of that thriving and industrious colony. The bar of the Chupat river has acquired the reputation of being the very worst on the whole coast: it beats the Rio Negro and Rio Grande bars hollow, but it has the immense advantage of being susceptible of removal. The war office should send down a gunboat with a few tons of dynamite and blow away that hellgate once and forever. We might also hint at the blowing-up of the many sunken wrecks in the inner and outer-roads of this port, but we have been preaching this for so many years that it has become another 'hole in the mole' nuisance.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the ring during official hours:—

The latest "canard" out is that the Lord Mayor has abandoned the parlors of the National to beg at the doors of the Provincial Bank; furthermore, that the Board of the latter Bank, with great diplomatic tact, have offered his Lordship ten million dollars for his Boulevard scheme, if he succeeds in getting the bank an increase in the emission to that amount. This is tantamount to a point-blank refusal.

The Municipality, however, is not in such low water as many are willing to think. Some party has discovered that nearly all the land between Lezama Quinta and the Boca belongs to the Municipality, and all the necessary documents to prove this are being filed by Dr. Cullen. This is a windfall from an unexpected quarter, but it will take a thousand years to settle the lawsuit that will ensue.

Telegrams from Bahia Blanca announce a heavy downpour in that quarter. It deluged for two hours.

A money changer was robbed last night of 5,000 gold sovereigns. Burglars broke into the office, opened the safe, and cleared with the golden contents. As gold is awfully scarce at present, the police will find it an easy task to trace the robbers.

The following vessels are at present loading jerked beef:—

Two of the above are ready to sail.

Mr Hugh Lett was welcomed to-day on his arrival from the Venado Tuerto. He reports the small town going ahead rapidly, and all the sheepfarmers in that district and in Loreto doing well at present.

Telegrams were received from Antwerp to-day announcing a stiff fall in the price of wool at the Antwerp auctions.

Seven or eight heavy wool buyers entered the Plazas to-day. Good wools were in most active demand; as fast as they come in, they are sold. Middling and inferior qualities neglected. Mr P. Casey sold to-day:

500	arr. Rojas at 89
500	Hearne at 98
1000	Salto at 72½

Some fine Azul wool was sold in the South Market at 105¾.

Mr. O'Dwyer's wool from the San Guillermo estancia is expected to-morrow or next day at the South Plaza.

Good sheepskins are moving off fast at 26 to 28 rls Cowhides are somewhat duller; their quality is no longer very good, owing to the summer hair.

Exchange was quoted this afternoon at 47½-⅝-¾d. on London. Operations to-day were about as large as yesterday. Francs were passed at 5.01 and 5.02. The principal houses are still holding back.

A fly-sheet, abusing the gold speculation, the Bolsa, and a banker, was circulated to-day, calling on the Government to put down the premium on gold, stop the crisis and put an end to the gold speculation.

The Kosmos steamer Uarda will leave on the 7th from this port for the West coast direct

Advices from Tucuman announce a corner in the sugar speculation. The production of the sweet article has been considerably less than expected, and some parties have to buy large quantities to fill their contracts.

An American company, it is said, has been formed to build a suspension bridge over the Riachuelo, in front of the lands recently purchased by the Banco Constructor. We may be prepared to see great changes in the Riachuelo before long; there is a boom in that district and everything is going to the skies.

Freights are firm. The rate for bales will soon be quoted at 25 frs.

The German steamer Leipzig will leave on the 10th. Her agents have already engaged 1200 bales of wool, 14,000 dry hides, 2,000 salted do, and 8,000 bags of maize and bran.

The gold market ruled as firm as a rock during afterhours. About three hundred thousand dollars were sold. The rate for cash went up to 50¼, but closed with sellers at 50. The price for the end of the month touched 48¾, but closed with sellers at that rate.

Colonel Bosch's race horses fetched the following prices at auction to-day:

Half-blood colts and fillies, 2 year-old:

We take the following from late London papers:—

"The depression in the frozen meat trade has continued up to the present, and although prices have now and again shown a fractional advance, no material change can be recorded. Occasionally there has been an improved inquiry, but the demand generally continues very inactive, and present stocks are still considerably in excess of current requirements. The whole of the consignment per Zenobia from the R. Plate, consisting of 13,536 carcases of sheep and 335 quarters of beef, has now been cleared at 3¾d to 4¼d per lb. for the mutton, and 2¾d to 5d for the beef.

"The movement which has been started at Hamburg to import frozen meat from the R. Plate into Germany is making headway. A meeting of gentlemen interested in the proposal to further the object has been held at Hamburg. Herr Pedro Beck convened the meeting, twenty persons being present, and to these he explained the entire scheme. Herr Beck said that a capital of 1,000,000 marks would be sufficient, if the company only bought sufficient land on which to keep the cattle before slaughtering them, but three million marks would be necessary if extensive pasture grounds were to be acquired. As a result of the conference a committee was appointed, consisting of Herren Eugene Collet, Krass & Co., H & K Cremer, Dibke, and R. Zollner, to consider the subject further. Herr Beck spoke hopefully of the promises of support which he had received from military and other authorities."

We take the following interesting paragraph from the Breeders' Journal; it will interest farmers:—

"The Hereford is as hardy when once acclimated as the native, and as good a rustler, and a better grazing beast. This is a recognised fact wherever he is known. What is true of Texas, is true of all other parts of the cattle range except in this: that he adapts himself to the range at once, as though a native to it.

"To the breeders who desire the largest results, we commend the Hereford as the breed in and of itself, that carries the heaviest flesh, and of the hardiest constitution, as being the best grazer, and as making the best quality of meat from grass alone; and that from his strong constitution and reproductive powers, he is able to reproduce these qualities in nearly as perfect combination as they exist in the thoroughbred, when crossed upon the native cow, the Texas cow, the Devon cow, the Shorthorn cow, or that of any of the other breeds. In a word the Hereford in his purity, or in his crosses on all other breeds, produces the best beef animal; that is, more uniformly good than that of any other breed.

"Hence in view of the magnitude of the cattle interest for beef production, the Hereford must occupy the leading position in the bullock breeding herds of the world."

The returns of the stamped paper tax in this city for last month amounted to 163,000 m/n, against 119,000 m/n for the same month last year, showing an excess in favor of last month of 44,000 m/n.

The branch of the National Bank in Bahia Blanca has purchased in that town a site, measuring 80 yards on Rivadavia square and 55 on O'Higgins street, for the round sum of ten thousand nacionales—the highest price ever paid for a building site in the rising Liverpool of the South.

The returns of the Custom House yesterday amounted to 76,000 m/n, making a total of 171,237.77 m/n for the two first days of the month. The Land-tax Office collected yesterday 5,800 m/n, and the Stamp Office 3,300 m/n.

The Municipality received one tender only for the supply of maize to the horses of the "basura" service, at the rate of 2.45 m/n per fanega. This shows either little enterprise amongst maize men or little faith in the payments of the Municipal Treasury.

We see in the Montevidean papers that five squares of land at the back of the Gayoso quintas in the Mounthave been sold for $4,400. The quinta of the Damasa Forero "testamentaria" has been sold for $11,300. Buyer of both properties, Mr. F. Piria.

The Captain of the Allan Line steamer Phœnician spoke on the 29th October H.M.'s S. Ruby, in Lat. 34° 10' S, and Long. 50° 04' W.

The following figures show the working of the Andine Railway for the month of August:

Gross returns	$98,159.72 m/n
Expenses	46,492.05
Net proceeds	56,667.67

Expenses amounted to 47 o/o of the gross returns. The figures per kilometre were as follows:—

Kilometres working	767
Gross per kilometre	$127.98
Expense per kilometre	60 62
Net per kilometre	67.36

The samples of new wools arrived at Montevideo are pronounced satisfactory. The parcels sold were of good, clean and light quality.

GEORGETOWN, DEMERARA, JAN 17, 1875. Gentlemen:—I suffered for eight months with pimpitation so that I could not do anything for myself. I called in Dr. Fowler and he recommended me to try Bristol's Sarsaparilla and Pills, and after using them four weeks, I was relieved of the trouble.—William Wilson.
